List briefly, previous experience serving in public office, and/or on civic commissions, boards, or committees:

Open Space Committee-1 year, Saba board.

Reasons for this appointment:

- Interest in our community where I can make a contribution.
- My interest in San Anselmo after living here for so long.
- Available time to contribute.
- I want to be involved.

What are your qualifications for this appointment?

- Local knowledge of Parks and Recreational opportunities.
- Recreation-long time Saba baseball coach and Central Marin football coach. Worked many years maintaining Saba fields. Tumbling classes and girls basketball!
- Community relationships-I know many people after putting 3 kids through the school system...actually one is not finished but will be going to Drake.
- Parks-community gardener at Robson-Harrington, hiker at Sorich and supporter of the new Red Hill facility.
- Good listener.

Briefly, what do you consider to be the most important, one or two current issues facing this Board/Commission/Committee?

- Being able to financially support the Park and Rec. facilities and opportunities we now have.
- Continue to expand facilities as needed and to be responsible guardians of what we now have.
- Reach out to the community for input and support.

I understand that, I, and all other applicants, will be personally interviewed by the Town Council as part of the selection process for this appointment.
